

GHOST DID NOT WALK
IN THIS "HAMLET" SHOW

Midish Actor Leaves His New York
Company Stranded in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 2.—Seven months ago, seven stage hands, five actors and a good deal of audience would like to know the whereabouts of today's "Hamlet" show, whose neglect to pay salaries at the Princeton Theatre deprived the audience of an opportunity to see a dramatic performance billed as "The Danish Hamlet."

Like the ghost of his father, "Hamlet" has disappeared. In the mean time the company which brought him from New York is stranded. The audience when they saw there was to be no play made a rush for the box office. Some of them must have got in on pieces for the money they got when about one hundred of them still were waiting.

You can't choose eyeglasses and obtain correct ones—as you would an embroidered handkerchief or a yard of silk. There is one right way—if you believe that your eyes may require eyeglass help—and that is to have them examined by an Oculist (Registered Physician).

Our Oculists (Registered Physicians) examine your eyes so carefully—our Workmen construct your glasses so accurately—and our Opticians adjust them so skillfully that the service we give you is really worth more than you pay for Harris Glasses.

The magnitude of our business (the largest of its kind in the world) makes all this possible.

Harris Glasses—cost $2 or more—depending entirely upon the particular kind of lenses prescribed—if glasses are needed—and the quality of mounting you select.

Casting of the Suffrage Liberty Bell,
Which Will Ring When Women Get the Vote

This photograph, made yesterday in the foundry of the Menckley Bell Company, at Troy, N. Y., shows Mrs. Frank M. Roessing of Philadelphia casting the Suffrage Liberty Bell, which Mrs. Kathryn W. Wuchemberger of Philadelphia is donating to the women vote advocates of the country. The bell, which is being cast at a cost of $2,000 is to be a copy of the famous Liberty Bell of 1776.

It will not be tolled until the women of Pennsylvania receive the right to vote. After the bell is completed, in May, it will be carried through the Keystone State on a huge motor truck, escorted by delegations of women, after which it will be transported to Washington, where it is expected to be installed in a permanent and fitting place.

OUT, GOVERNMENT SAYS

124,141 Animals Have Been Slaughtered, but That Does Not Cover the Total Loss.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Practical eradication of the foot and mouth disease of live stock in the United States was announced today by the Department of Agriculture. Officers in charge of the campaign waged against the plague said that with the single exception of a herd of animals near Syracuse, N. Y., which had been designated for slaughter today, telegraphic reports from the inspectors throughout the country showed that the disease had been, to the best of their knowledge, completely wiped out. Figures compiled by the department show that 124,141 animals have been slaughtered because of the foot and mouth infection from the time of the outbreak in October to March 25 last.

DOG SNAPS AT CHILDREN,
TEARS POLICEMAN'S HAND

Nurses Flee in Fifth Avenue—Beast Attacks One Bluecoat in Park and Is Shot by Another.

A big, shaggy dog, with black body and brown legs, leaped through East One Hundred and Sixth Street at 3:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon and at Fifth Avenue snarled and snapped at children and nurses. Many of the nurses, in terror, fled. The dog is not believed to have bitten any of them. It ran into Central Park and Patrolman James E. Monahan emptied his revolver at the animal, but his shots went wild. Turning south the dog ran along East Drive, and at McGowan's Pass, at One Hundred and Fifth Street, leaped at Patrolman Stephen Rice, who was about to shoot it. Rice's left hand was badly lacerated. Mounted Patrolman Connelly galloped up. The dog now was running along the drive opposite Sixty-second Street. Connelly overtook the beast and sent a shot through its brain. The body was taken by the Board of Health and will be examined for rabies.

CHARGES AGAINST PEIRCE
RECALLED BY NEW JOB

Was Assailed by House Committee as Concerned in False Claims on Russia.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—In view of the appointment by Secretary Bryan of Herbert H. D. Peirce as special aid to Ambassador Maysa at Petrograd, Russia, it was recalled here today that two years ago, after he had retired as Third Assistant Secretary of State, he had been assailed in a report made by a committee of the House of Representatives. The charge was in connection with an inquiry into the sealing conditions on the Pribiloff Islands of Alaska, and it was said that Mr. Peirce with others had prosecuted a fraudulent claim for $50,000 against Russia for the unlawful slaying of seals. Nothing ever came of the charges.

Representation of Nude Woman Disgusted Mayor Curley—Church Exhibition Private.

BOSTON, April 2.—The two scenes of the moving picture "The Hypocrites," which so disgusted Mayor Curley that he refused to watch the rest of the pictures, were the least objectionable of the reel, according to the Mayor's censor, John M. Casey, who sat through the entire exhibition of the film and reported his opinion to the Mayor today. As a result of the report, the Mayor requested the managers of the place where the play was to have been given not to show it. The film was shown privately in Tremont Temple, Boston's leading Baptist Church. A nude woman is one of the central figures. Under the law the Mayor has no power to forbid the showing of the pictures at least once, but because of his office his "request" that it be not shown is practically an order, as when he "requested" Richard Bennett not to put "Maternity" on the stage.

OPPOSE BILL TO GIVE CITY WOMEN JUSTICES

Limited in Its Scope, but Senators Bottle It Up in a Committee.

ALBANY, April 2.—The bill to give New York City two women Justices has been bottled up in the Senate Cities Committee. The Senators are opposed to female Judges. The City Administration has opposed the idea. The principal advocates of it are Women Suffragists, on the ground that women Judges are better qualified to take charge of girls brought into the Children's Court than are men.

Texas Sues Packing Houses. AUSTIN, Tex., April 2.—Suit was filed in the Twenty-sixth District Court here today by the State against Swift & Co., Armour & Co. and Morris & Co., packing house corporations, for alleged violations of the Anti-Trust Laws of Texas. The charges involve common ownership by the corporations of cotton gins and oil mills throughout the cotton States, including Texas. The State asks penalties, the amount to be determined in court.
